DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-10 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S patent number 6,490,436 (Kaiwa et al).
.Regarding claims 1-10 and 14-16, Kaiwa et al discloses a mobile phone (figures 1-7) comprising: a body (10); an engaging member, moveably disposed on the body, including a first rib (22) having a first inclined surface; wherein the engaging member further includes a second rib (21); and a battery (50), detachably disposed on the body, including a first concave portion (70) corresponding to the first rib, wherein the first rib is located in the first concave portion, and the battery is lifted by the first inclined surface so as to be separated from the body.

a device for fixing a battery (50) of a mobile phone (figures 1-7), wherein the mobile phone includes a body and a battery, the battery includes a concave portion (70), and the device includes: a main part moveably disposed on the body; and a first rib (22), integrally formed on the main part, including a first inclined surface, wherein the first rib is located in the concave portion, and the battery is lifted by the first inclined surface so as to be separated from the body; and a second rib (21).

Kaiwa et al does not disclose a second rib including a second inclined surface facing the first inclined surface; wherein the main part further includes a first surface and a second surface, a normal vector of the first surface is perpendicular to a moving direction of the main part, the first rib is formed on the first surface, a normal vector of the second surface is parallel with the moving direction of the main part, and the second rib is formed on the second surface; wherein a first angle is formed between the first inclined surface and the normal vector of the second surface, a second angle is formed between the second inclined surface and the normal vector of the second surface, and the first angle is smaller than the second angle.

The difference between the applicant's second rib and Kaiwa's second rib is the shape of a triangle.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify the shape of the second rib by Kaiwa to a non-right triangle for lifting a battery (see In re Dailey, 357 F.2d 669, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966)).

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
